Character Limit: 10

Project Need*

What is the racial and/or socio-economic equity issue that you would like to address at your school? Help us understand the issue as it pertains to your school. If possible, provide examples.

How did you identify the problem, and how were other stakeholders involved in identifying the issue?

Character Limit: 2500

Primary beneficiaries*

What is the target population for this project?

Character Limit: 250

How many people will be impacted by this project?*

Character Limit: 100

Project Description*

How do you propose using the grant money to address the issue that you have identified? What are the specific tasks that will be included and who are the people/partners that will execute them. Please be as specific as you can, although you will have an opportunity (and more space) to provide more details in the full application.

Character Limit: 2500

Measuring Impact*

What will be the short-term and long-term impact of your project? Please identify three specific measurable outcomes.

Character Limit: 2500

Project Collaborators*

With whom (teachers, students, parents), if anyone, have you discussed your idea so far? We are interested in funding ideas with buy-in from various members of the school community. (Don't worry - there is still time before the full application is submitted to have these conversations).

Character Limit: 2500

Budget*

Please provide an estimate of what your project will cost to implement and include some detail for the various components. Please also let us know if you anticipate conducting additional fundraising or securing other funding sources to support this work.
